VI. Termination of Tenancy or Assistance

- A. VAWA Protections. Under VAWA, public housing residents have the following specific protections, which will be observed by GHA.

1. An incident or incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking will not be considered to be a “serious or repeated” violation of the lease by the victim or threatened victim of that violence and will not be good cause for terminating the tenancy or occupancy rights or assistance to the victim of that violence.
 2. In addition to the foregoing, tenancy or assistance will not be terminated by GHA as a result of criminal activity, if that criminal activity is directly related to domestic violence, dating violence or stalking engaged in by a member of the assisted household, a guest or another person under the tenant’s control, and the tenant or an immediate family member is the victim or threatened victim of this criminal activity. However, the protection against termination of tenancy or assistance described in this paragraph is subject to the following limitations:
 - a) Nothing contained in this paragraph shall limit any otherwise available authority evict for any violation of a lease or program requirement not premised on the act or acts of domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking in question against the tenant or a member of the tenant’s household. However, in taking any such action, GHA may apply a more demanding standard to the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking than that applied to other tenants.
 - b) Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the authority of GHA to evict any tenant or lawful applicant if GHA can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants or to those employed at or providing service to the property, if the tenant is not evicted.
- B. Removal of Perpetrator. Further, notwithstanding anything in paragraph VI A.2, or Federal, State or local law to the contrary, GHA may bifurcate a lease, or remove a household member from a lease, without regard to whether a household member is a signatory to a lease, in order to evict, any individual who is a tenant or lawful occupant and who engages in acts of physical violence against family members or others. Such action against the perpetrator of such physical violence who is also the tenant or a lawful occupant. Such eviction shall be effected in accordance with the procedures prescribed by law applicable to terminations of tenancy and evictions by GHA. Leases used for all public housing operated by GHA shall contain provisions setting forth the substance of this paragraph.

VII. Verification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence or Stalking

Subject only to waiver as provided in paragraph VII. C., GHA shall require verification in all cases where an individual claims protection against an action involving such individual proposed to be taken by GHA.
